EASTER BLESSINGS

Principal's Message

In religion, ethics, philosophy and psychology "good and evil" is a very common dichotomy. In cultures with Manichaeism and Abrahamic religious influence, evil is usually perceived as the dualistic antagonistic opposite of good, in which good should prevail and evil should be defeated.

'Paritranya sadhunam, vinasaya ca duskrtam, dharma-samsthapanarthaya sambhavami yuge yuge' (In order to deliver the pious and to annihilate the miscreants, as well as to reestablish the principles of values, I advent Myself millennium after millennium). Bhagavat Gita, Chapter 4: TEXT 8

The Holy Bible says, 'Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good; Do not be deceived; bad company ruins good morals; turn away from evil and do good; so shall you dwell forever; the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it'.

Holi is a popular ancient Hindu festival, also known as the "festival of love", the "festival of colours", and the "festival of spring." It celebrates the triumph of good over evil. Holi celebrates the arrival of spring, the end of winter, the blossoming of love and laughter. Let us forget and forgive, and repair all broken relationships. This year the festival falls on 29th March 2021.

In general the term "good" refers to something of value, or anything that fills a need or desire and thus affords satisfaction. It's a dangerous oversimplification to believe that some people are innately 'good' while others are innately 'evil' or 'bad'. 'Good' means a lack of self-centredness, sacrificing your own well-being for the sake of others. It means the ability to empathize with other people, to feel compassion for them and to put their needs before our own. Good is the unity of 'One, True and Beauty'.

May God gift you all the colours of life, colours of joy, colours of happiness, colours of friendship, colours of love and all other colours you want to paint your life in. Let the colours of Holi spread happiness, gaiety, peace and love all around.

Wish you a blessed Holi!
and
Happy Easter

Principal
